Baybasi Inc. and Foster City Parks and Recreation Department Presents: 2016 Holi Festival

Saturday, March 26, 11a-3:30p
Meadow, Leo J. Ryan Park

Holi is one of the largest festivals in India and is celebrated by people throwing colored powder and colored water at each other. Holi is celebrated (in India) at the end of the winter season on the last full moon day of the lunar month. One of Holi's biggest customs is loosening the strictness of social structures and bringing communities together in an exhilarating experience. Holi is significant for commemorating many myths and legends and symbolizes cleansing, a fresh start, and celebrating the coming of spring. In Foster City we will play Holi only with colored powder. The Foster City Parks and Recreation Department and Baybasi, Inc. are excited to be partnering to provide this free cultural community event!

Super Duper Spring Break Camps

Adventure is calling your camper to attend this year's Super Duper Spring Break Camps! At Super Duper Spring Break Camps, we have specifically designed a program for K-5th graders, incorporating many of your child's favorite activities to do at camp. This will of course include exciting arts and crafts projects, funny skits, and wild games planned for each week. We provide these children with a safe and fun environment where they are met with age-appropriate challenges, lessons and activities. They'll meet new friends, learn new skills, and most importantly, make memories that will last a lifetime. On Wednesday, March 30 & April 6, children will venture off to an exciting field trip nearby. For more information or questions you might have, please call (650) 286-3387.
