

Private Pickleball Lessons

Gary is an experienced pickleball tournament player and truly wants to share the joy, benefits and rewards of the amazingly popular sport of pickleball with you. So, please join one of his classes for a lifetime of fun.

His private lessons are designed to give you undivided attention. Whether it's a one-on-one, semi private or a group of four players. Tell him your needs and he will customize a class for you. This is the perfect opportunity to really fine-tune specific parts of your game!

Perhaps you and your partner might want to be a stronger doubles team, learn efficient switching techniques, better court coverage and positioning, etc. Learn how to play tournaments together and keep your partner happy!
